

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Sino – Latin American Law of the Sea Symposium Xiamen 2015 (LOSS), a new trans-oceanic event dedicated to marine topics, is honored to invite you to contribute to the upcoming Seminar and publishing.

Thematic focus:

The LOSS provides coverage on the following:

- Contributions of China and Latin American countries to the modern international law of the sea.
 - ✓ Role and impact of Latin American countries during the UNCLOS III and their contributions to the 1982 Convention
 - ✓ China's role during the establishment of the legal regime of development and management of mineral resources in the Area
- Case studies of national legislation on the law of the sea and existing legal issues involved in the development and utilization of marine resources
 - ✓ National legislation on the law of the sea after the adoption and entry into force of the 1982 Convention
 - ✓ International liability for pollution and damage as a result of the development of marine resources: the illicit act per omission.
 - ✓ Jurisdiction over pollution and damage resulted from development and utilization of marine resources: Applicable law and enforcement of judicial decisions.
- Feasibility study of future Sino–Latin American cooperation on the development, utilization and management of marine resources
 - ✓ Existing agreements between China and Latin American countries: evolution, status, implementation, and prospects
 - ✓ Future road map in the Sino – Latin American's cooperation (joint development of marine natural resources, fishing, hydrocarbons, biologic and genetic resources, mining, etc.)
 - ✓ Significance of the current development strategies of Sino-Latin American trade and investment in terms of marine resources sharing (i.e., China's investment in Latin American countries on infrastructure construction and China's product exchange with Latin America)
 - ✓ Common Heritage of Mankind: Possibility of cooperation between China and Latin American countries in the Area
 - ✓ Funding of Sino–Latin American cooperation on the development, utilization and management of marine resources
 - ✓ The role of non-State players (NGOs, private subjects, universities, research institutes, think tanks and discussion fora, etc.) in the Sino–Latin American cooperation on the utilization and management of marine resources

Executive Managing Editor

Kuenchen Fu South China Sea Institute

Managing Editors

Zhang Kening, South China Sea Institute

Lilian del Castillo de Laborde, CARI

Manuel Becerra Ramírez, IJJ – UNAM

Wagner Menezes, SLADI

Editorial Board

Pablo Ferrara, South China Sea Institute

Zhen Lin, South China Sea Institute

Ángel Horna, SLADI

José María Lladós, CARI

Evelyn Téllez, IJJ-UNAM

5 / 6

November

Potential Authors are invited to submit articles (20-25 pp.) of high qualitative standards with prospective presentation during the Seminar. Authors can select any quotation system (OSCOLA, Bluebook, etc.).

Upcoming deadlines and further information

Submission deadline: 30 September 2015

You are welcome to contact us to discuss article proposals.

For Chinese speakers and invitees, please email Ms. ZHANG Xia at zhangxia-fly@163.com or call +86-153-5928-1958.

For Spanish speakers and invitees, please email Dr. Pablo Ferrara at ferrarapablo@gmail.com or call +86-177-5059-4217 (China) / +54-911-6626-7859 (Argentina).

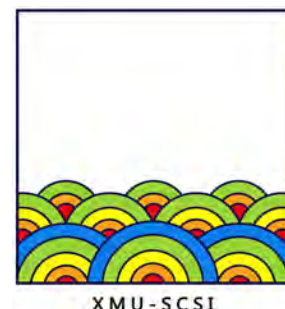

厦门大学南海研究院
South China Sea Institute, Xiamen University

CARI

CONSEJO ARGENTINO PARA LAS
RELACIONES INTERNACIONALES

SLADI.LASIL

SOCIEDAD LATINOAMERICANA DE DERECHO INTERNACIONAL
SOCIEDADE LATINO-AMERICANA DE DIREITO INTERNACIONAL
SOCIÉTÉ LATINO-AMÉRICAINNE DE DROIT INTERNATIONAL
LATIN-AMERICAN SOCIETY OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

